

Dorothy Mary Mycock (née Dicken)

AKA Mrs Dorothy Daykin, Head
Teacher Cressbrook Primary School

After living a long and energetic life, Dorothy died in hospital on 14th August 2022, aged 96. She was the widow of her first husband, William Daykin, and her second husband, Bill Mycock. Dorothy also was preceded in death by her daughter and only child, Pamela Hufferdine (née Daykin) and her brother Harold Dicken. In spite of having no immediate family Dorothy left a lot of loved ones, including her son-in-law Neil Hufferdine, step children, nieces and nephews, one sister-in-law and many friends.

Dorothy was a respected head teacher, church organist, music teacher and until the death of Bill Mycock, a business partner in Lathkill Coaches. She loved learning throughout her life. In her 80s she set aside reference books and learned to use a computer. Dorothy was "googling" and emailing almost until the day she died.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday 15th September, 2:30 pm, at St. Leonard's Church, Monyash with John and Mary Goldsmith taking the service. Family flowers only. Donations in memory of Dorothy, if desired, to Monyash Parochial Church Council (for the benefit of St. Leonard's Church) or the RSPB via

<https://dorothy-mycock.muchloved.com/>